

PROCEEDINGS OF THE GOVERNMENT OF KARNATAKA

Sub: Participation of DDG (ISSP) in the State High level Steering Committee (SHLSC) meeting of ISSP-reg.

- Read: 1) Govt. Order No.PD.64.SMC.2008, Bangalore dt. 25.03.2009.
2) Letter No. 1-12012/12/2013-ISSP, Dated: 27.05.2015 from the Director of Ministry of Statistics and Programme Implementation-ISSP, Government of India, New Delhi.

PREAMBLE:

In the Government Order read at (1) above, The State High Level Steering Committee (SHLSC) constituted under The Chairmanship of Chief Secretary to Government, to oversee the preparation and implementation of the State statistical strengthening Project (SSSP) and to issue necessary directions to all the participating Government Departments / agencies concerned with statistical activities for the successful implementation of the Indian Statistical Strengthening Project in Karnataka State.

The Director of Ministry of Statistics and Programme Implementation-ISSP, Government of India, New Delhi in his letter dated 27.05.2015 has stated that in the State High Level Steering Committee (SHLSC) constituted under The Chairmanship of Chief Secretary to Government, the DDG(ISSP) has to be the member of committee. This will result in effective contribution from the ministry and reduce the lack of co-ordination and delays etc., in the implementation of state programme. Further, he has requested to include DDG (ISSP) as a member of the said committee.

The proposal has been examined in detail, the State Government has decided to include the Central Government Nominee and also Project Director, KSSDA as State Government Nominee and hence this order.
